ORDER AND RECOMMENDATION OF UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Petitioner, a prisoner of the State of North Carolina, submitted a document entitled “WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS FOR RELIEF OF and FROM AN UNCONSTITUTIONAL TERM OF IMPRISONMENT.” Even though Petitioner has not used the correct forms for a habeas corpus petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254, it appears that Petitioner seeks to attack his state court criminal conviction. The document he filed is not a recognizable method for achieving this goal. Instead, the proper avenue for such an attack is ordinarily a petition for habeas corpus. For this reason, the Court will construe the submission as a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in state custody. For the following reasons, the Petition cannot be further processed.

1. The filing fee was not received, nor was an affidavit to proceed in forma pauperis submitted and signed by Petitioner.
2. Petitioner did not use the required § 2254 Forms. Rule 2, R. Gov. § 2254 Cases.

Because of these pleading failures, the Petition will be filed and then dismissed, without prejudice to Petitioner filing a new petition on the proper habeas corpus forms with the $5.00 filing fee, or a completed application to proceed in forma pauperis, and otherwise correcting the defects noted.¹

The Court also notes that the Petition was not filed in a proper district. Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d), “[w]here an application for a writ of habeas corpus is made by a person in custody under the judgment and sentence of a State court of a State which contains two or more Federal judicial districts, the application may be filed in the district court for the district wherein such person is in custody or in the district court for the district within which the State court was held which convicted and sentenced him.” See also Braden v. 30th Judicial Circuit Court of Kentucky, 410 U.S. 484, 497(1973). In this case, it appears that Petitioner is presently in custody in Greene County, North Carolina, in the Eastern District of North Carolina. It further appears that Petitioner was convicted and sentenced in the Superior Court of Mecklenburg County, within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. Petitioner should seek the proper forms from the Clerk of the Western District and file a habeas petition in that district. The address for the Clerk is: Charles R. Jonas Federal Building, 401 West Trade Street, Room 1200, Charlotte, NC 28202. Further, in accordance with § 2241(d), 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a), and the Joint Order of the United States District Courts for the Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of North Carolina, a § 2254 Petition filed in this District would be transferred to the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. If Plaintiff files a § 2254 Petition in this District, he should address whether the case should be transferred to the Western District of North Carolina.

In forma pauperis status will be granted for the sole purpose of entering this Order and Recommendation of dismissal with permission to file a new petition which corrects the defects of the present Petition.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that in forma pauperis status is granted for the sole purpose of entering this Order and Recommendation.

IT IS RECOMMENDED that this action be construed as a habeas petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 and dismissed sua sponte without prejudice to Petitioner filing a new petition which corrects the defects of the current Petition and is filed in the proper district.

This, the 7th day of August, 2024.
